

Tilak Ayurved Mahavidyalaya, Pune

Tilak ayurved Mahavidyalaya Department of Kaumarbhritya

Goals of Balrog Studies –

- Help Children Achieve full potential as adults.
- Control the spread of infectious diseases.
- Learn and educate society about immunization its importance and its benefits.
- Promote healthy lifestyles for a long disease free life.
- Treat sick children and help them attain their full potential.

Objectives of Balrog studies –

At the end of course the student shall be able to –

- Identify normal and abnormal child.
- Develop clinical skills of examination and diagnosis of diseases in children.
- Explain principles of lehan.
- Explain the importance of various sanskars.
- Explain weaning diet.
- Diagnose and treat diseased children.
- Explain principles and practice of vaccination and immunization to parents.
- Explain the importance of newborn care.
- Provide optimum care to newborns and children.
- Explain healthy habits to achieve a disease free life.

Skills to be achieved at the end of Balrog studies –

At the end of course the student shall be able to make use of –

- Principles of suvarnaprashan and suvarnaprashan skills.
- Skills of examination of newborns.
- Skills of basic resuscitation.
- Skills of examination and diagnosis of diseases in pediatric patients.
- Treat the diseased child.
- Know when referral is required to higher centres.
- Skills in pediatric panchkarma.

