

Tilak Ayurved Mahavidyalaya, Pune

OUTCOME OF THE COURSE - B.A.M.S

Bachelor of Ayurvedic Medicines and Surgery

Expected by RSM's Tilak Ayurved Mahavidyalaya, Pune.

At the end of completion of B.A.M.S final year and one year of internship the fresh graduate candidate passing from Tilak Ayurved Mahavidyalaya and Seth Tarachand Ramanath Ayurved Hospital, pune must possess following qualities as 'Ayurvedacharya' or B.A.M.S docter:-

1. He/ she should have thorough knowledge of all subject taught for four years as per C.C.I.M – curriculum and MUHS Nashik syllabus.
2. He/ she should have participated in all the hand on training/ clinical/ practical session during the tenure. He /she must be passed through all the theory and practical exam separately.
3. As the competent health care professional he/ she should be able to take clinical cases from all departments with empathy with proper communication skills.
4. He/she should be able to diagnose the cases as per Ayurveda as well as modern science and able to refer for proper medical test/ surgical treatment. He/ she should be able to define exact status of patient.
5. He/ she should be able to treat the patient with Ayurvedic medicine and Panchkarma treatment modules in depth. He/ she should be able to use emergency modern drugs and perform cardiopulmonary resuscitation to save the life of a patient.

6. He/ she should be able to undertake normal labour patient/ minor surgeries and accidental cases.
7. He/she should exhibit moral ethics in the society and work for upgradation of health of human beings.
8. He/she should feel the attachment with the mother institute and keep in touch with his batch mates and teachers.