Adv. Sri Hemant Zanjad guided the students and informed the students about the types of ragging and the laws for the ragging. He appealed to the students to raise awareness against ragging. Senior police inspector of Samarth Police Station Shri Umesh Gitte discussed the importance of value of education and how the person is empowered to enhance the moral and to take on social responsibility. Dr. Milind Bhoi urged to the students to contact the concerned seniors to prevent ragging.

After the workshop, the Anti-Ragging Week closing ceremony was held. Prizes and certificates were awarded to winners by distinguished guests. Chairperson Dr. Saroj Patil delivered her address. The anti-ragging oath was administered by Dr. Manjiri Deshpande, Secretary of the Anti-Ragging Committee. Dr. Indira Ujagare expressed thanks to all participants. Assistant Professor Dr. Darshana Ubhale and postgraduate students of the Rognidan Department contributed to the success of the program.

The selfie standy was kept in the library. The link of online videos was shared to the students.
